

In Junior Great Books, 2nd – 5th grade students read stories and share their ideas and opinions about what they read. The narratives have been selected to spark children’s ideas, and promote discussion while expanding their literary exposure. Groups meet weekly beginning the week of January 6, and end mid-March. The students and adult leader meet during lunch hour and discuss the stories while eating lunch together. The kids love the idea of eating in a classroom and participating in a “book club.”

If your child is interested in being a part of Junior Great Books, please fill out the bottom of the page and return it, along with a $5/child book rental fee, no later than Friday, December 6, 2019.

NOTE: This is a voluntary program. Please be sure your child wants to participate, as unwilling participants tend to be disruptive. Late sign-ups cannot be accepted.

ADULT LEADERS NEEDED!!!

The groups consist of 4-8 students and 1-2 adults. If we do not have enough adult (18+) volunteers for the students, we will not be able to offer Junior Great Books to that grade, so please consider signing up! Choose the day of the week that works for your schedule. You can split the weeks with someone else and/or co-lead a group. Everything you need (leader books, activity suggestions, and program ideas) will be provided.

I am interested in leading a group!
