

Ames Pta meeting December 6, 2019 8:35 call to order

President Report- Susan Wolfe

- Still seeking co-president. Please. Also, other positions need to be filled for next year. In school volunteer vp, many chair positions including box tops and mixed bags (now Boone Supply). We need parents to get involved and volunteer.
- New plans have been revealed for addition. New Media Center, cafeteria/multi purpose spaces, early learners. Martha Ryan-Toye will be at our next pta meeting to answer any questions. Thursday, January 9th at 3:15

Secretary- Patty Romero

- Approve meeting minutes from November meeting. Approve: Domenica, 2nd Kelly

Treasurer- Kelly Tabb

- Budget update with latest actuals are distributed.
- Fall Festival was a success. We raised approx. 18,000 that will go towards field trips, educational programs such as historical perspectives and artist in residence, among many other programs for the next 2 years.

VP cultural Arts and Educational Programs- Jennifer Butler

- Artist in Residence program is still in the works.
- Junior Great Books will launch the first week after winter break
- One Book One School will launch sometime in 2nd half of year with this being the pilot year lead by Sandoval and we will see how it goes and perhaps take it over in future years

VP Fundraising and Events-

- Wolves Hockey game is still TBD. Dawn Eagleson is working on it, if we sell 50 tickets we will get a jersey to contribute to next auction.
- Holiday shop was a success. Huge thanks to Dawn Eagleson. We gave $2 to each student to shop and it seemed to be well received by students and teachers.
- Family Dance is moved to FEB 28

VP in School Volunteers- Dana Frank

- Holiday parties will be on last day before break. Holiday keepsakes will be distributed to room parents and put together during parties.

VP Hospitality-

- Teacher cookie exchange will be on 12/20. Liz McGarrie and Susan Muirhead will be heading this up
